Bible Reading

Romans 8 v 35-39
read by Andrew Maundell

Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, 'For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered. 'No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prayers, finishing with The Lord's Prayer
lead by Andrew Maundrell

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, the power
 and the glory;
For ever and ever. Amen.

O Lord, My God – How Great Thou Art

Prayer of Commendation

Nunc Dimittis

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace:
according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation: which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.
